

December 15 - Our mission is simple: create, update and enhance the most valuable e-resource knowledgebase available. We grow, refine, and update our knowledgebase every day to benefit you and your patrons.

Please review the following information to ensure that your patrons can successfully connect to the resources they need when they need them, and you can better evaluate your collection.

New full-text databases added to KnowledgeWorks

Make sure your KnowledgeWorks profile is up-to-date. Review the latest additions in the Support Center.

Update your library's KnowledgeWorks holdings profile

- Haworth Press and Informa: All content currently hosted on haworthpress.com will be moving over to informaworld.com and all new content will only be published on Informaworld starting January 2009. Since content will be hosted in tandem on informaworld.com and haworthpress.com through March 2009, libraries should deselect the Haworth Press-hosted databases by that time.
