SEARCHING ON Ulrichsweb.com

Search Ulrichsweb.com using up to 30 criteria and a variety of search modes—including the easy-to-understand search form (pictured at right). Save the 15 most recent searches of your current session in the “Search History” section of the Advanced Search screen—so you can search within results or otherwise refine your search criteria.

Users can limit search results by selecting from a wide range of search limiters including publication status, special features, serial type and price range.

SEARCH RESULTS

Once you’ve performed a search, Ulrichsweb.com provides an at-a-glance search results screen that lets you sort your results by various criteria (by selecting a column heading) and decide which full citations you wish to display. If you want to save data you’ve located on Ulrichsweb.com, you can either save citations to an Ulrichsweb.com List (with your comments), which can easily be e-mailed, accessed, and edited in the future; or you can download the data in various formats for spreadsheets and other uses.

ENABLING OTHER CONTENT LINKS

If you also subscribe to products in the Serials Solutions® 360 Suite, you can establish links to and from those products and your Ulrichsweb.com account.

If you subscribe to Thomson Scientific’s JCR® Web or to ScienceDirect or OCLC WorldCat, authorized users of your Ulrichsweb.com account can easily access data from these providers right from their Ulrichsweb.com screen. You can also link using your OpenURL resolver. It’s easy to enable these links in the My Account area.
