360 SEARCH

Usage Reporting Feature

Helping you get the information you need

Helping libraries optimize federated search

Librarians need to know how electronic resources are used as a basis for securing funding, selecting resources, and understanding patterns of usage. Using 360 Search Usage Reporting, you will be able to track which resources are searched the most. This information, when used in conjunction with 360 Search's extensive customization abilities, gives you the power to define and create the best search experience for your patrons.

Search Session Metrics

See how many searches were performed by your patrons. . .

- Monthly Search Report
See the number of Sessions and Searches broken down by month
- Daily Search Report
